Made a cat and ran around shoot :3. Good potential. Maybe redesign the face of the cat models.. Very cool game i liked the part where i was a cat shooting rockets. no players not a single one, I'm literally only one online, thrilling experience, I like it, been playing this game for like 7 hours alone, and I think I got smarter, its like being Adam in the garden of Eden, no one joins the server, course there is no one. I thought about the meaning of life, while shooting to stars, about the existence of purpose. what is life? May be at the bottom of this lonely server there is an answer for everything mankind been looking? what is joy, and sadness, after 3 hours I discovered most glitches and spots, after 5 hours of gameplay I was playing with bots, , even tho this mode is not suported, but i created it, this is hideous, a silence and loneless can be more powerfull then actuall coding, see i discovered that if you throw yourself out of building and quickly respond and run to that spot u can still quick scope your falling body for a solid 20 sec. reallity. waht is reall? what if that any of this isnt reall and only this lonely server, a moment expirience of existing, what IF THIS IS THE ONLY REALL THING THAT EXIST, IF I JUMP RIGHT NOW OUT OF MY WINDOW WILL I SEE MYSELF FALLING?
